

Subject Photographs

Aerial photo of the subject property.

Subject Photographs

Photo of the joint use access which feeds easterly from US 93.
Photo taken from near the eastern edge of US 93

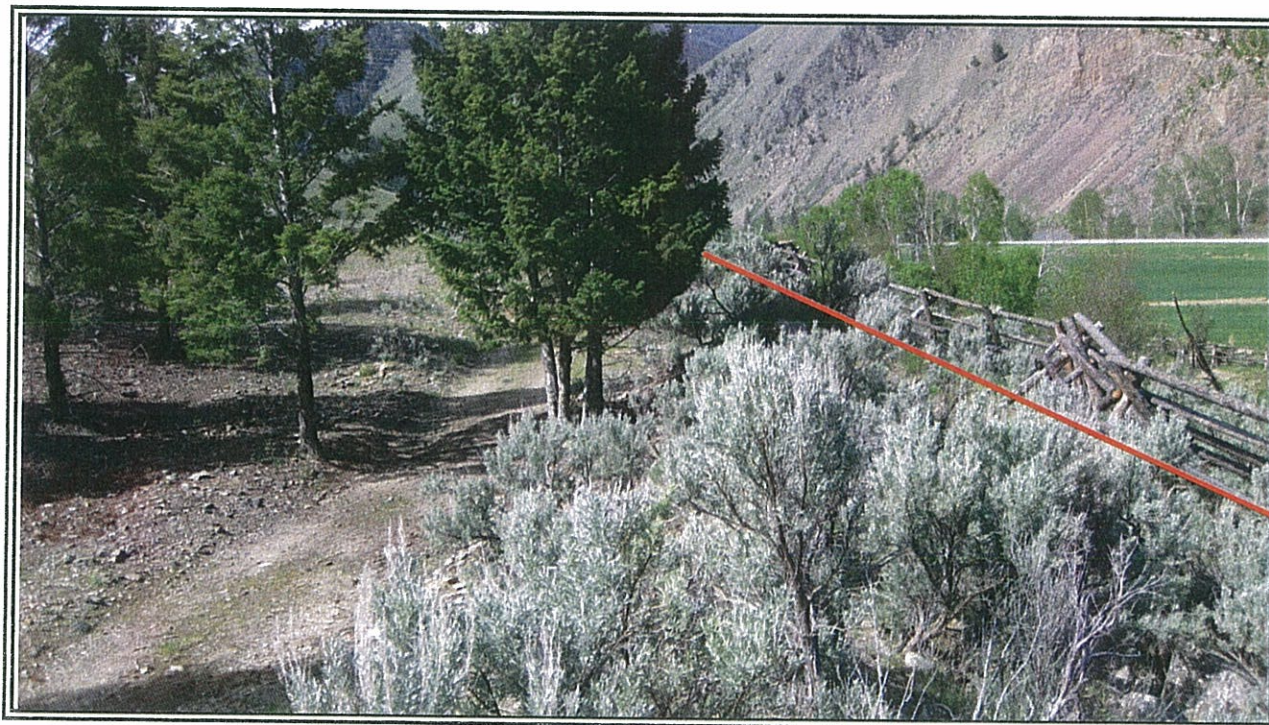

Looking east along the joint use access road. Property boundaries are depicted in red although boundaries are not to scale.

Subject Photographs

Photo of the northcentral quadrant of the subject showing areas previously mined for gravel.
Photo taken from near the joint use access road looking southeast..

Looking south along the western boundary of the subject. Photo taken from near the mid-point of the subject property. Joint use access road can be seen at left side of photo. Red line depicts approximate western boundary of the subject.

Subject Photographs (continued)

Photo of area that appears to have been previously mined for materials. This area which is situated in center portion of the subject property, is generally level and appears able to support a residential dwelling.

Looking northward along joint use access road. Photo taken from the southwestern quadrant of the site. Western property boundary depicted by red line on left side of photo.

Subject Photographs

Photo of the southernmost portion of the subject looking northeast.
Red lines depict approximate southern, eastern and southeastern boundaries of the site.

Looking northwest from the southeastern most quadrant of the subject. Photo depicts the southernmost area that was previously mined for materials. Excavation tailings can be seen at bottom and left portions of the photo.